

shall accept their services, the regiment or battalion to which they belong shall be exempt from draught for that year.

34. The said order shall be transmitted by the adjutant general in duplicate, one copy thereof by mail directly to the commanding officer of the battalion or regiment from which the draught is to be made, and the other copy to the brigadier general to whose brigade such battalion or regiment belongs, who shall safely and immediately transmit the same to the commanding officer of such battalion or regiment, and forthwith report by mail to the adjutant general that he has so transmitted the same.

35. Each commandant of each regiment and battalion from which a draught is ordered to be made, shall summon the commanding officers of the companies of his battalion or regiment to meet him at a suitable place within ten days after he shall receive such order, when and where he shall by lot draught, at the hour appointed, a company out of the whole number of persons subject to said draught, and make duplicate lists of the persons who shall be draughted, and transmit one of said lists by mail immediately to the adjutant general, and shall deliver the other without delay to the brigadier general from whom he received the order to make said draught.

36. The persons who shall be draughted shall be notified thereof, and shall perform at any time within a year from the date of said draught in case of need, a tour of duty of three months, to be computed from the day on which they shall be called into service, and such other duties as are herein directed.

37. The Governor shall select, appoint and commission from the district militia officers of each regiment or battalion, one captain and two lieutenants to command each company of infantry and riflemen; one captain and two lieutenants to command each company of artillery, and one captain and two lieutenants to command each troop of cavalry that shall be draughted as aforesaid.

38. The companies that shall be draughted in any county shall be arranged by the Governor into battalions, squadrons and regiments, and from among the field officers of the district militia of such county the Governor shall select, appoint and commission one major to command each squadron or battalion,